Although the focus of the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport (CCES) is on the athlete competing at the International and National levels, all judo events in Canada are subject to Canada's Anti-doping Policy and are therefore subject to unannounced doping control.

To learn more about this policy, athletes should be advised to take the following steps:

- Check the Global DRO (www.globaldro.com) to determine if any prescription or over-the-counter medications or treatments are banned by the WADA Prohibited List.
- Review medical exemptions requirements (www.cces.ca/medical) if you require the use of a banned medication for a legitimate medical reason.
- Do not use supplements, or take precautions prior to doing so. Supplement products cannot be verified by the CCES or in the Global DRO. A lack of industry and government regulation makes it impossible to confirm their ingredients. Read more: www.cces.ca/supplements
- Review the steps of the doping control sample collection procedures: <http://www.cces.ca/en/samplecollection>.

Kata Competition & Clinic

This is one of the most popular Kata competitions in Western Canada and we want you to participate! The Edmonton International Judo Championship will be hosting a Kata competition on Friday, March 10 in the Ice Palace at West Edmonton Mall starting at 5 pm.

We will continue to have U21 nage no kata and first 3 sets nage no kata. As well as the old faithfuls - Nage no Kata, Ju no Kata, Katame no Kata, Kodokan Goshinjutsu and Kime no Kata. If you or someone you know is just starting to practice a Kata, come out and compete – the atmosphere and experience can't be beat!

Encourage others to attend this great competition and learning experience. While entry fees are only $40 per Kata per team, the friendship and camaraderie that is developed among the Kata participants is priceless.

Another event not to be missed is the Kata Clinic offered by Kata Champions Gord Okamura and Kelly Palmer, whose record includes Canadian Champions, Pan American Champions and 4 European medals. At the IJF World Kata Championships, they have consistently placed in the top ten; including 5th in 2015 in Amsterdam and 7th in 2016 in Malta. In 2016, they attended a two-day EJU Kata Clinic in Austria and a two-day IJF Kodokan Kata Clinic in Malta.

Come and hear some of the latest details! This clinic is being held at no cost on Sunday, March 12 from 7:15-9 am.

Any questions, ideas or thoughts, please contact Gord Okamura at gyokamura@gmail.com or Kelly Palmer at kellypal@telusplanet.net
